These are Dogon hunters. They believe in frog aliens from the stars, run around on stilts and wear pink skirts.

Wiping out Al-Queda supporters is always a based thing to do. I really do wish Africans were less savage and more civilized though, those outfits are definately weird as fuck but I've always been a supporter of an ethno-state for every group of the world and I think African culture is certainly unique and should be preserved in Africa in order to show the diversity of our species. I just wish they would embrace law and order and not act like animals.

Sort of reminds me of being told about "Devil People" - not sure if it's ghost stories to keep kids from wandering off and getting bitten by a snake or killed by Coyotes in the desert but I spent a few nights on Navajo reservation they told me not to go out at night because of the "Devil People" who frequently kidnapped and murdered people passing through reservation

Wait, what what what!? Niggers who actually invented something?

But then again, being Dogon explains something. In my experience (I've actually met a few Dogon in my travels) they seem to be such a different breed of Nog, that their claims of descent from some planet orbiting the Sirius B star——can be believable.

They don't claim they 'wuz Space-Kangz & sheeeeeit'.....their story (a more believable one) is that some higher-up race of Saucer-Spooks transported their asses here for some reason or other.

Yep. That be them. They spoke of Sirius B (invisible to the naked eye) circling Sirius eons before 20th century lenses could detect it.

Supposedly ancient Greek travelers named the Cannabis plant after these nogs. The story goes that the word 'cannabis' means 2-dogs in ancient Greek, and that the Dogon claim of descent from the Dog-Star's little companion (Sirius B) includes that the ganja plant (or a strain of) came with them from there via some Saucer-Spook craft.

 Who the fuck knows..... it' was known to have naturalized all over the place ages ago. I was just yapping about a story some Greeks heard from some nogs over a few thousand years ago. But like I said, maybe the Dogon nogs were speaking of a STRAIN of cannabis. Kek knows that that plant (with it's compatability with intense ranges of UV) could likely thrive on most HABITABLE worlds regardless of types of solar radiation/atmospheric filtration it has etc etc.
 Kek.....this blather gets any more out there-----we might have to take this over to /x/

The Dogon are a smarter than usual breed of nigger who long ago migrated from former homelands as they became over-run with Islam.

Dogon are actually pretty woke to how evil and fucked up Islam actually is.

I personally met a few Dogon in my travels and was pretty impressed with how different they were from your common Jamals & Tyrones.

ONCE AGAIN THE MUSLIMS OUT DINDU DINDUS

> It is likely that the Dogon of today combine several groups of diverse origin who migrated to escape Islamization.[10]

It is often difficult to distinguish between pre-Muslim practices and later practices, though Islamic law classified them and many other ethnicities of the region, (Mossi, Gurma, Bobo, Busa and the Yoruba) as being within the non-canon dar al-harb and consequently fair game for slave raids organized by merchants.[11] As the growth of cities increased, the demand for slaves across the region of West Africa also increased. The historical pattern has included the murder of indigenous males by Islamic raiders and enslavement of women and children.[12]
